- CLASSES MEETING DAILY will hold final examinations at the same time as classes meeting at the same hour on MWF.
- SUNDAY CLASSES will hold final examinations on arrangement with instructor.
- If the instructor decides to hold a final exam on the weekend, it is the instructor's responsibility to notify the University Police Department (UPD) in advance. UPD prefers that you email the department directly, upd@sfsu.edu(link sends e-mail). If you find the building or room is still locked, you should call the 24-hour dispatch number, 415-338-7200. As an alternate, you may fax your notification to 415-338-1926.
- Students taking CLASSES AT OTHER THAN THE HOURS LISTED ABOVE should consult with their instructors during the first class period to avoid final examination schedule conflicts.

Once a week classes

Classes meeting once per week from 5:00 p.m. will hold final examinations at the regularly scheduled time and place according to the following schedule.

Monday classes will hold exams on Monday, December 12

Tuesday classes will hold exams on Tuesday, December 13

Wednesday classes will hold exams on Wednesday, December 14

Thursday classes will hold exams on Thursday, December 15

Friday classes will hold exams on Friday, December 16

Final Exam Conflicts

The table below are final exam conflicts based on the final exam schedule. The table lists the pair of class meetings that have a final exam conflict for students enrolled in that combination.

Final Exam Conflict, Example 1

A student is enrolled in ACCT 101 and CHEM 102. ACCT 101 meets MWF 8:00am-9:00am and CHEM 102 meets M 9:30am-12:15pm, so these classes have overlapping final exam times. This also applies if ACCT 101 meets MW 8:00am-9:15am and CHEM 102 meets M 9:30am-12:15pm.

Final Exam Conflict, Example 2

A student is enrolled in ENG 214 and BIOL 101. ENG 214 meets TR 12:30pm-1:45pm and BIOL 101 meets R 9:30am-12:15pm, so these classes have overlapping final exam times.

Note to Students: Please review your schedule for final exam conflicts and consult with your instructor(s) during the first class period.
